As President of the Polish Dance Sports Federation and WDSF Vice President for Development, I have the honor to invite you to the WDSF Senior III Standard European Championships, which will be held in Ostroda on April 13-14, 2024. This is where the best dancers will compete for championship titles.

I would like to thank the organizers for their commitment to organizing such an elite event as European Championship. At the same time, I keep my fingers crossed for all the dancers who will come to Ostroda to compete for medals and championship titles.

Good luck!
